

I have registered under the Indiana Privacy Law. Previously, I was receiving 3-5 calls per evening from solicitors which interrupted my time with my family. Since registering, my private time has improved substantially. I don't want the FCC to take any action that would change the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.